WHY THIS ONE

A proper US-spec sedan that covers serious miles without costing serious money. Volkswagen's 1.8-liter TSI turbo four makes 170 hp through a six-speed automatic, and the engine has just been fully refreshed: complete timing chain and components, new fuel injectors, new NGK spark plugs and new NGK ignition coils. It drives smooth, quiet and eager. The rear seat has limo-like legroom and the trunk takes family luggage or a full PCS load of boxes. 15 documented service records and a clean title, with the expensive work already done.
